

Contents

	page
Authors List	XI
 Desplazados: el sutil argumento de los requisitos menos atractivos Antonio Ojeda Avilés
1. La extraña proporcionalidad de los desplazamientos atractivos	1
2. El universo conceptual de pertenencia	4
3. Otros métodos resolutivos en los conflictos sobre libertades y derechos fundamentales apropiados al desplazamiento de trabajadores	8
 Cross-border posting and smart working Enrico Gragnoli
1. The epidemic and the peculiar fate of the research project	13
2. The use of smart working and its impact on cross-border posting	16
3. The emergence of the more general problem of cross-border smart working	18
4. What does the search for a “fair” solution mean?	21
5. The need for the European Union to reflect and the current, habitual use of questionable self-employment relationships	24
 Implementation Issues of the Posting Directives in Lithuanian Labour Law – Transport Sector Specifics Daiva Petrylaitė and Justinas Usonis
1. Introduction	27
2. Drivers – posted workers: weeks on / weeks off	29

	page
3. Relationship between the concepts “posting” and “mobile work”	32
4. Restrictions on rest taken in vehicle	33
5. Work remuneration for drivers	35
6. Annual leave and unpaid leave	38
7. Conclusions	39

Posting of workers in the framework
of an ongoing process of reform

Victoria Rodríguez-Rico Roldán

1. Preliminary remarks on the topic	41
2. The posting of workers and the freedom to provide services in the European Union	43
3. The regulation of the temporary posting of workers in Directive 96/71/EC	46
4. Enforcement and implementation of European Union Law	49
5. The latest reform on the matter: an assessment of the strengths and weaknesses	56
6. Conclusions	62

Est modus in rebus: the dosimetry of sanctions in the transnational posting of workers between european legislation and national application

Stefano Maria Corso

1. The regulation on the posting of workers as a test case for European case-law	67
2. The features of the penalty according to EU legislation	70
3. Austrian legislation in the matter of transnational posting of workers and non-application as a (mandatory) tool of alignment with EU law	72
4. Obligation of non-application and implementation criteria in the Italian legal system	74
5. Conclusions and prospects for the (emerging) Italian jurisprudence	78

Portuguese Report on the Posting of Workers Regime

António C. da Frada de Sousa and Milena da Silva Rouxinol

1. Introduction	81
-----------------	----

	page
2. The Portuguese transposition of the EU Directives on posted workers	85
3. Scope of application of the Portuguese legal framework on posted workers implementing Directive 96/71	86
3.1. The notion of posted worker in the Portuguese Labour Code	86
3.2. The territorial scope of application of the Portuguese posted workers regime	91
4. Employment terms and conditions applicable to posted workers	91
4.1. Collective agreements with erga omnes effects in Portugal	92
4.2. Principle of application of the most favourable law	94
4.3. Terms and conditions of employment applicable to posted workers according to the PLC – the problem of “remuneration”	95
4.4. The inclusion of provisions concerning “job security” among the terms and conditions applicable to posted workers – a Portuguese peculiarity	96
4.5. New terms and conditions mandatorily applicable to posted workers after Directive 2018/957	98
5. Long duration posting – implementation of new article 3(1a) of Directive 96/71	99
6. Temporary agency workers hired out by temporary work agencies as provided by new article 3(1b) of Directive 96/71	100
7. The transposition of Directive 2014/67/EU (after Directive 2018/957)	102
8. Conclusion	104

Cooperation between labour inspectorates in the enforcement of European labour mobility legislation

Manuel Velázquez

1. The regulatory framework for the enforcement of European labour mobility legislation	107
2. Monitoring European labour mobility and the role of the European Labour Authority	108
3. Information systems to monitor European labour mobility	109
3.1. Posting Declaration	109
3.2. Certificates of social security legislation applicable to mobile workers	110
3.3. European Posting Communication System for International Road Transport	112
3.4. Assessment of the current functioning of mobility information systems	113
4. Communication and information systems on labour mobility between States	114

	page
4.1. IMI information system	114
4.2. Social Security Information System (EESSI)	115
4.3. Other means of information exchange	116
4.4. Assessment of current intercommunication systems between authorities	116
5. Inspection actions on labour mobility	116
5.1. Inspection models on labour mobility in EU Member States	116
5.2. Concerted and joint inspections	117
5.3. Business fraud in labour mobility	118
5.4. Fraud in wages, working hours and social security contributions	120
5.5. Fraud in occupational safety and health provisions	120
5.5.1. The control of obligations carried out in the State of origin	120
5.5.2. Direct control of working conditions	121
5.5.3. The control of accidents at work and occupational diseases of posted workers	121
6. Transnational notification and enforcement of administrative decisions	122
6.1. Transnational enforcement of administrative penalties in case of posting	122
6.2. Transnational enforcement of decisions in the field of social security	123
7. Legal loopholes and lege ferenda proposals	123